User joining from	Standard View only meeting	Standard View only meeting with Enhanced audio	Classic View only meeting
Modern browser (Chrome, Firefox, Safari or Edge)	If the new application is installed, users will join in Standard view in the application. If the application is not installed, users will join in Standard view in the HTML Client in the browser.	If the new desktop application is installed, users will join in Standard view in the application. If the application is not installed, users will join in Standard view in the HTML Client in the browser.	If either of the new or old desktop application is installed, users are prompted to launch the application. If the application is not installed, users are asked to download it.
Old browser (Internet Explorer 11)	Users are asked to either join from a modern browser or asked to install the new application.	Users are asked to either join from a modern browser or asked to install the new application.	If either of the new or old desktop application is installed, users are prompted to launch the application. If the application is not installed, users are asked to download it.
Windows/Mac – Standard application	Meeting is launched in Standard view.	Meeting is launched in Standard view.	Meeting is launched in Classic view.
Windows (64bit)/Mac - Classic application	Users are asked to either join from a modern browser or asked to update to the new application.	Users are asked to either join from a modern browser or asked to update to the new application.	Meeting is launched in Classic view.
Windows (32bit) - Classic application	Users are asked to join from a modern browser.	Users are asked to join from a modern browser.	Meeting is launched in Classic view.
Mobile apps	Users are able to join the meeting.	Users are asked to join from desktop	Users are able to join the meeting.

CONNECT
INNOVATION